Philadelphia, June 21 .- President McKiney was unanimously renominated for President of the United States by the Republican National Convention at 1:48 o'clock to-day, and an hour and ten minutes later Gov. Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, was unanimously selected to stand beside him in the coming battle.

The scenes attending the selections were umultuous. Such unanimous demonstraions in honor of the nominees of a na onal convention have never been equaled, perhaps, in the history of politics in this country. It was a love feast, a jubi-

Run from Macon to the Fatal Spot The train left Macon at 7:10 and was due in Atlanta at 9:45 last night. McDonough was reached on time. At this point con nection is made for Columbus. Ga., and bere every night the Columbus train is executive committee of the American coupled on and hauled through to At-League, of which Edwin Burritt Smith is lanta. Last night, however, for the first time in many months the Columbus train object of the meeting was to bring about of a washout on that branch, and the was reported two hours late on account Macon train started on to Atlanta without Tremendous rains of daily occurrence for the past few weeks have swollen all several washouts have been reported on the different roads. Camp's Creek, which runs into the Ocmulgee, was over its banks, and its waters had spread to all the lowlands through which it runs. About a mile and a half north of Mc-Donough the creek comes somewhat near the Southern's tracks, and running alongside it for some distance, finally passes away under the road by a heavy stone culvert. A cloudburst broke over that section of the country about 6 o'clock last night, and presumably shortly after dark washed out a section of the track, nearly 100 feet in length. Into this this swiftly moving train plunged. There was no note of warning. The storm was still raging, and all the car windows were closed.

Unable to Save Any Lives.

The train, consisting of a baggage car second-class coach, first-class coach, and a Pullman sleeper, was knocked into kindling wood by the fall. The wreck caught fire a few minutes after the fall, and all the coaches were burned except the Pullman car. Every person on the train, except the occupants of the Pullman car, perished in the disaster. There was no escape, as the heavy Pullman car weighted down the others, and those in the sleeper were unable to render assistance to their fellow-passengers.

For a brief time there was silence. Then from their bewikierment, and after hard work, managed to get out of their car and found themselves on the track in the pouring rain. The extent of the catastro-phe was immediately apparent. Flames were already seen coming from that part of the wreckage not covered by the water. As the wrack began to go to pieces under the destructive work of both es as i flood human bodies floated out from the mass an were carried down stream by the swi' : rrent. The storm did not abate in .. Flashes of lightning added abate in ... Flashes of lightning added to the steasy glow of the burning train and lit up the scene with fearful distinct-ness. A flagman, Quinlan, who was one of the first to get out, at once started for the nearest telegraph station. Making his sheriff by a mob near Live Oak to-day, hanged to a tree and riddled with bullets. He made a full confession. The nearest telegraph station. Making his way as rapidly as possible in the face of the blinding storm, he stumbled into the limiting storm, and after telling the office at McDonough, and after telling the
